Copyright Guidelines

All photos are copyrighted by Mathis Photography. However the setting fee includes a license to use your photographs for any personal purpose or to use them, or reproduce them to promote yourself or your business. This usage would include such things as business cards, brochures, advertising, public relations, etc.

At the same time, Mathis Photography retains the rights to use the photographs to promote our photography business.

If you want to sell them for another use, such as advertising an unrelated product, there would be an additional licensing fee. If Mathis Photography wants to sell your photos for another purpose, we will seek your permission and pay you a modeling fee.
